THE Louisville Times has taken some pains to find out Grover Cleveland's strength in Kentucky and publishes the following result of its investigation: It is almost the unanimous opinion among Kentuckians that Mr. Cleveland has no chance whatsoever to receive the Democratic nomination and if he should, that he could not carry this State in the election. Any number of Democrats declare that 50,000 voters would stay away from the polls in this State if Cleveland should be nominated. This number will include men who voted for Bryan in 1896 and men who bolted the ticket that year. Kentucky Democrats say plainly they will have none of Cleveland. Democrats in the East say that Mr. Cleveland can carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Democrats here do not know of the condition in the East, but they do say that while Cleveland was carrying those States he would certainly lose Kentucky, Indiana, Tennessee and Missouri. Therefore it is figured by Democrats here in Kentucky that Mr. Cleveland has no chance of winning the nomination and that circumstances will never arise at St. Louis which will ever make him a possibility.

With bands and drum corps playing "Dixie," and the delegates cheering enthusiastically, the 14th annual reunion of United Confederate Veterans was called to order at Nashville Tuesday by Gen. G. W. Gordon, after which Gov. Frazier delivered an eloquent address of welcome. Seated upon the platform were many distinguished visitors. Gen. S. D. Lee's appearance as permanent presiding officer was the signal for a demonstration.

If the American people shall decide to restore a democratic administration and they will, one of the first and most cheering prospects of sound business methods will be to put the public finances on a solid basis by bringing the government receipts and expenditures into a closer relationship

MATRIMONIAL.

Harmon and Lillie Mosley, aged 15, and 14 years respectively, escaped from the watchful eyes of their parents and eloped to Tennessee, where they were married. Their home was at Smith's Grove.

Chester J. Fitch, a prominent young man of Nicholasville, and Miss Gertrude B. Givens, daughter of Thomas Givens, a leading attorney of Flemingsburg, were married at the Phoenix Hotel.—Lexington Democrat.

A. E. Grimes and Miss Hattie Burge, both of the Maywood section, were united in wedlock's holy bonds at Eld. J. G. Livingston's by that gentleman on Wednesday. Mr. Grimes is a nephew of Mr. S. H. Shanks and is a clever young man. His bride is said to be both pretty and attractive.

Blackburn Huffman and Miss Eva Cooper drove to Danville Wednesday afternoon and were made husband and wife by Rev. J. O. A. Vaughn. After the ceremony the happy pair drove to the home of the groom, where a splendid supper was enjoyed. Mr. Huffman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Huffman and is a clever and industrious young man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. R. H. Cooper, of the Turnersville section, and is an excellent young lady.

"For the first time in the history of this office," said Probate Judge Enoch, of Sedwick county, Kansas, "a request was made to-day for a receipt for the money which a groom paid for his license. The young man said he wanted something to show for it in case the license was lost before he had occasion to use it. With a straight face as I could muster, I sat down at my desk and made the required receipt and placed thereon one of the large official red seals. The young man then seemed satisfied and went on his way."

The wedding of Miss Jennie Pence and Mr. William J. Dozier, which was solemnized at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pence, was one of the most attractive of the summer weddings, charming in its simplicity. It was a yellow and white wedding, the entire house being decorated in plumose, smilax and daisies. In the parlor the windows were hung with smilax and plants were banded on either side, forming a background for the bride and groom. The mantels were banded with the daisies and the banisters were draped with the smilax, the new posts holding branches of daisies. Before the ceremony Miss Jennie Lynn sang "Always." As the chorus from Lohengrin was played, the groom and his best man entered the parlor followed by the bride and her brother, who gave her away. During the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. P. J. Ross, Miss Lynn played "Call Me Thine Own." Miss Pence was beautiful in her wedding dress of champagne voile with hat to match. The bride's table was arranged in the dining room, the bride's cake being the central decoration. It was iced in white and held large candy baskets of daisies. The silver candlesticks held white tapers with yellow silk shades. The place cards were hand painted daisies. Mr. and Mrs. Dozier drove to Danville, where they took the train for Lawrenceburg and from there will go to St. Louis and on an extended trip West, for their bridal tour. They were the recipients of many handsome presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond sunburst brooch. The bride is a charming young woman, exceedingly handsome and universally popular. She is greatly beloved for her sweet disposition and sunny temperament. The groom is a stove manufacturer of Nashville, a fine business man and a clever gentleman.

The New York Sun is republican but that doesn't keep it from telling the truth sometimes. For instance it says that "the Roosevelt trust is the most compact monopoly on earth.—President, Vice President, United States Senate, House of Representatives, Republican National Convention, Republican National Committee. Indeed the President is spoken of as "the whole cheese."

Combined Stallion.

Mahogany bay, black points, white only on left hind foot, eight years old, 15.3 1/2 hands high, weighs 1,500 pounds, strong flat bone, heavy mane and tail, good back, with long, crany, tapering neck, well set in high mounted shoulders, a saddle horse head and ear on him, a model under halter, wonderful style in harness, a show horse sure. When one year old wore all honors in his class wherever shown, also the blue tie in sweepstake harness rings at same age. When a three-year-old he was shown 14 times and wore 13 blue strings; has never been defeated in fancy harness rings; has always been the victor in stallion stake rings; as a breeder, when shown with three or more of his get, for size, style and general conformation and for all purposes. He is a saddle horse with five distinct gait, fast line acting racker, good in two walks and a nice looper, very positive in his trot under saddle and in harness, great all around action, as is required for an up-to-date sire of high priced sale horse for saddle or harness. He is a sure enough harness horse, graceful, stylish and fast; can show eighth in 18 1/2 seconds, a 2:28 gate with but little handling; did this last fall after serving 91 mares last spring. He is possessed of wonderful nerve and speed enough to get trotters for track use or gentlemen's roadsters, large, handsome, stylish, heavy and strong enough to get carriage horses with a kindly disposition for all purposes of a family horse. He is the horse to sire parkers, stylish, graceful, substance, docility. It has been given up by horsemen that he is one of the most uniform breeders in Kentucky. He types his colts after himself; has never sired a sorrel colt. The most profitable horse, horses for the farmer and small breeder to produce is the horse which serves the widest range of purposes well. His colts are show colts of the highest type, blue string winners from the oldest to the youngest.
